

Old Home Day

Labor Day Road Race

Charlton, Massachusetts

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This race begins in front of the Town Hall, near the Common. The course heads south with the Town Hall on the left.

About 1/10th of a mile from the start, the course goes right, around the Common onto Main Street heading north through the center of town with the library on the left and the Common on the right.

Heading towards Route 20, the course goes past the Post Office on North Main Street and takes the next left onto H. Putnam Road.

The one mile marker is on this road near the driveway to the St. Joseph's church.

At the bottom of the hill the course meets up with Route 31 again where it heads left up the hill back towards the center of town.

The two mile mark is almost at the top of the hill near the Masonic Home.

The course continues on Route 31 bearing right, back through the center of town where the Common is now on the left and the Library is on the right.

Continuing through the center and down the hill it takes a right onto Flint Road. The three mile marker is at the beginning of Flint Road.

The course continues on Flint Road for almost a mile before it takes a left turn onto Old Town Road with a short challenging hill (2/10 mile) where it intersects with Route 31.

The four mile marker is at this intersection where the course goes left onto Route 31.

The final 1/3 of a mile includes a challenging finish up Route 31 ending in front of the library.
